

Title: Report on the Paradigm Mentorship Program by the Worldview Institute

1. Introduction

The following report provides an overview of the Paradigm Mentorship Program organized by the Worldview Institute. The program took place at Nomads Lodge in Chudleigh, Lusaka, Zambia on the 8th of May 2023. This meeting specifically targeted small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) and Christian business people. The event aimed to foster a mentorship environment and provide valuable insights on the importance of integrity in business.

2. Event Details

- Date: 8th May 2023
- Time: 18:30-20:30
- Venue: Nomads Lodge, Chudleigh, Lusaka, Zambia

3. Agenda and Speakers:

The event featured two keynote speakers: Mr. Dewey Green and Pastor Anthony Njoroge, who shared their expertise and perspectives on integrity in business.

3.1 Mr. Dewey Green's Address: Mr. Dewey Green delivered a thought-provoking speech on the significance of integrity in business. He emphasized that integrity should start from one's home and extend to all aspects of business operations. Mr. Green shared his insights into building trust, maintaining ethical standards, and fostering transparent practices within organizations. His talk provided practical guidance on how business leaders can cultivate integrity as a core value in their enterprises.

3.2 Pastor Anthony Njoroge's Reinforcement: Pastor Anthony Njoroge further reinforced the teachings of Mr Dewey Green regarding the importance of integrity. Pastor Njoroge's speech highlighted the moral and ethical aspects of integrity in business from a Christian perspective. He stressed the need for aligning business practices with biblical principles, demonstrating how integrity can contribute to long-term success and the positive impact businesses can have on society.

4. Welcome and Thanks

4.1 Chairman's Introduction: Mr Victor Nyasulu, Chairman of the Worldview Institute, welcomed the participants and introduced the organization. He provided an overview of the institute's mission and objectives, emphasizing the significance of mentorship and character development for entrepreneurs and business leaders.

4.2 Appreciation by Pastor Isaac: The Executive Director of the Worldview Institute, expressed gratitude to all the business people who attended the meeting. He acknowledged their commitment to personal growth and their willingness to engage in the mentorship program. Additionally, Pastor Isaac extended heartfelt thanks to the sponsors who made the event possible, including NS-CGMA, an accounting firm, and Conrad Grey, a communications firm.

5. Conclusion

The Paradigm Mentorship Program organized by the Worldview Institute at Nomads Lodge in Chudleigh, Lusaka, Zambia, successfully provided SMEs and Christian business people with valuable insights into the importance of integrity in business. The event featured distinguished speakers, Mr Dewey Green and Pastor Anthony Njoroge, who emphasized the role of integrity in fostering trust, ethical practices, and long-term success.